1. JANUARY 2004 CPO NAVY-WIDE ADVANCEMENT EXAMINATION will be held 15 January 2004 at the Mustin Beach Officers' Club. Advancement exam candidates are to report at 0700 (doors close at 0800) in working uniform with military ID.
2. NAVY REGS – EEO Quid pro quo (this for that) sexual harassment occurs when submitting to, or rejecting, unwelcome sexual behavior, and is used as a basis for decisions affecting any person's employment, job, pay, or career. This could be a promise of employment, a promotion, a threat of or an actual demotion, a duty assignment, or a positive or negative performance evaluation.
3. GRAMMAR RULE OF THE WEEK. Commas. Nonrestrictive clauses – a nonrestrictive clause (usually beginning with which or a form of who) is parenthetical. The information it gives is not essential to the meaning of the sentence. Thus the clause is set off with commas. (Examples: Crestwood Mall, which Mr. Pappas owns, is expanding. Professor Mikasa, who was born in Japan, teaches Asian literature.)
4. SECURITY AWARENESS: Security education must be provided to all personnel. The education effort must be tailored to meet the needs of the command, as well as those in different groups within the command.
5. SAFETY TIP: The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission warns that fires can start when flammable materials touch a nightlight. To reduce the chance of fire, place nightlights away from flammable material, look for nightlights that bear the mark of a recognized testing laboratory, and consider using cooler, minineon bulbs instead of 4 or 7 watt bulbs.
6. QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "There is no security on this earth, there is only opportunity."
